

Hill. 1603.

The Influences of this Eclipse is not great, and therefore I will not speake much of the same, onely to touche the same in a word: he will worke all his mallices before the xi. day of August, in 1604. and will begin to worke the same, the ix. day of May, in the aforesaid yeare.

The threatenings are these: Death of new married people, death of Rogues, many bastards to be vngodly borne, and begotten by Rogues. Good and comfortable inclinations be these: great riches to godly men, faithfull servants, long life to husbandmen, long life to soldiers, and to Lawyers: and lastly, it signifieth long dayes to live, almost of all degrees and states of people, not before spoken: God giue vs the best, and turne from vs the worst, Amen.

Having ended to speake of the Eclipse, now will I shew thee how the wandering Stars, or rather Planets, are seated in the Spheare: eyther about our Horizon, or vnder our Horizon, during this whole yeare.
